

BLUEY

YES/NO BUTTON

You will need:

- Small box (cosmetic box or old lightbulb box)
- Bottle tops
- Scissors
- Yellow wrapping paper
- Brushes
- Ribbon
- Glue
- Tape
- Paint: red, green and white

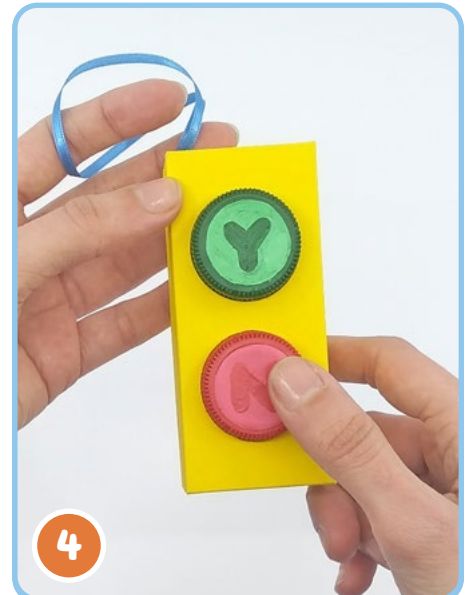

1. Start by wrapping the small box with yellow paper.

2. Loop a piece of ribbon and attach the ends to the back of the box with sticky tape.

3. Paint the bottle tops, one green and one red. Finish by painting a "Y" on top of the green button and a "N" on top of the red button. Let them dry.

3. Glue the buttons to the front of the box.

Ta-da! Time to ask some questions.
